

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The sacrifices made by veterans in the defense of this great nation have allowed all citizens to live in freedom; and,

WHEREAS, There are thousands of men and women throughout the state of South Dakota who have met the greatest demand of citizenship, which is honorable military service in time of war; and,

WHEREAS, Veterans' Day affords each of us the opportunity to join with all citizens across this beautiful nation in honoring those who responded to their country's call and exemplified true patriotism; and,

WHEREAS, The state legislature of South Dakota has designated Saturday, November 11, as Veterans' Day:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 11, 1989, as in South Dakota, and in suitable recognition of that day request that the flag of the United States be displayed on all public buildings, on our streets, and on our homes. I also urge civic and patriotic organizations to participate in and give enthusiastic support to appropriate ceremonies marking this special day. I further ask all South Dakotans to participate as fully as possible in the spirit of the day, remembering those who made the sacrifices, those who gave their lives, those who are disabled, those who are missing, and all those whose lives were interrupted by their service to our country in the Armed Forces.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Third Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine
